How to get to the ship departure (and back) on 5 June?

The red dot marks the spot where I will wait for you on 5 June to enter the ship. The ship will leave on time 18:30, so we enter the ship at 18:15 to find our space. Therefore, please be there at 18:00.

From the Relaxa / Etap Hotels: You can either walk (2.3 km) or take the underground from Kochstrasse, travel three stations to the north (direction Alt-Tegel) and leave at Friedrichstrasse. Friedrichstrasse is quite a busy and confusing station, so pay attention where you leave. From the station, walk 200 m north to the Spree River.

From Mercure: You can either walk (1.2 km) or take the underground for one or two stations and leave at Oranienburger Tor or Friedrichstrasse.

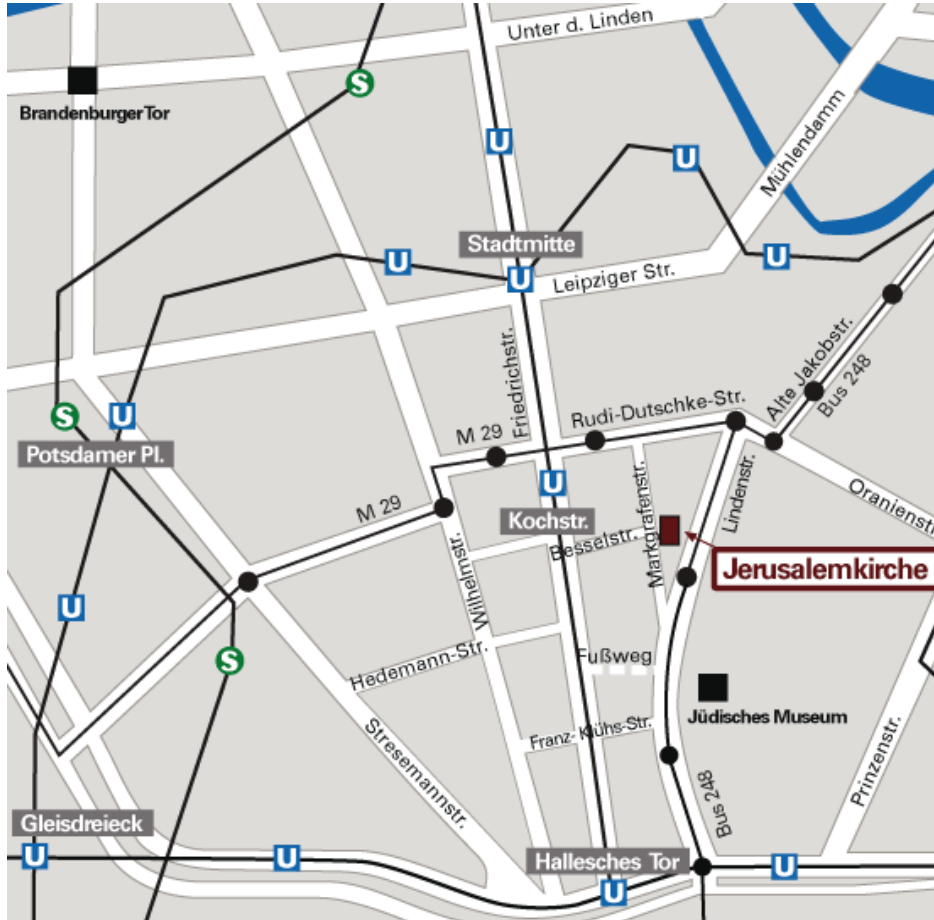

How to get to the Brachvogel Restaurant (dinner on 6 June)?

The easiest way to get there is to meet us at the Jerusalem Church at 18:15 and we walk with you to the restaurant. This is particularly recommended for all of you staying in the Relexa and Etap Hotels. However, you can also get there yourself. Nearest underground station is Hallesches Tor, where U6 is stopping as well. If you stay in the Mercure near the museum, you can take the U6 down to Hallesches Tor and walk 10 min parallel to the canal to the restaurant – the red A in the map below.

Arriving Sunday and looking for dinner locations:

If you stay in the Relexa or Etap Hotels: Steakhouse Asador and Ristorante Marinelli are just around the corner. If you walk a bit further, you will find a good selection of all kind of food at the Potsdamer Platz.

If you stay in the Mercure Hotel: The Chausseestrasse has quite a number of good restaurants, from German to Asian cuisine. Not far is the Oranienburger Strasse, which is a big party area with even more choices of food.
